Home Comforts Featured

This world-famous and interesting hotelry is a well-appointed, twelve-story structure, thoroughly modern, strictly fireproof and equipped with every facility for the comfort of its guests. Being a women's hotel, woman's wit has been used to provide the little necessities and comforts so much appreciated by her. The permanent guest finds all those little attentions and conveniences so hard to obtain outside of her own home. The stranger finds that genial atmosphere which is unusual and therefore appreciated by women who visit this city alone and desire temporary hotel accommodations.

The location of the HOTEL MARTHA WASHINGTON is all that could be desired. It is right in the center of the shopping district and is convenient to every transportation line.

Hotel Martha Washington

The Broadway surface cars are but two blocks away. The 29th Street crosstown surface car passes the door connecting with the ferries, by which passengers on the Lackawanna, Erie, Jersey Central and other Western Railroads are transported to and from Manhattan. The Fifth Avenue stages traversing one of the most interesting thoroughfares in the world, are on block west.

Hotel Martha Washington

To the north, the 34th Street cross-town cars connect with the Pennsylvania Terminal, while one block east the Subway or Madison Avenue surface line makes the Grand Central Terminal and uptown points of interest easy of access.

Modern Equipment

The hotel contains four hundred and fifty rooms, single and en suite. Each room is steam heated, is supplied with hot and cold running water, electricity, telephone and has direct outside exposure, ensuring excellent ventilation. In addition to the private baths there are numerous baths on each floor for the free use of guests; the plumbing is exposed and of the most modern and sanitary character. Mail chutes are located on each floor and filtered ice-water is piped throughout the building.

The Library

An exceptionally attractive feature is the Library on the Parlor floor. Here the guest will find a complete and diversified collection of literature.

Books from the New York Public Library may be secured upon application to the Librarian in charge, who is affiliated with that institution.

Hotel Martha Washington

The Librarian is a woman of experience and culture, who will be found fully capable of answering any inquiries and suggesting literature to meet the taste or requirements of the guests.

Drawing Room

On the second floor, also, are the Drawing Rooms. These rooms may also be used for the reception of visitors, for afternoon teas, club meetings, receptions, etc.

Smoking Room

A pleasant concession to the comfort of the sterner sex are the smoking quarters where gentlemen may enjoy a quiet smoke.

Cuisine Unexcelled

Particularly delightful features are the Colonial Tea Room and the Restaurant, both located on the main floor. The appointments are unexcelled and carefully selected "Menus" can be attractively arranged for the individual or for parties as may be desired. On this floor are also located the lobby, a favorite rendezvous during the day and in the evening a popular social meeting place of the guests, also writing rooms, which have been fitted up in keeping with the rest of the public rooms and finished with the distinctive object in view of making them as cheerful as possible.

Hotel Martha Washington

While the restaurant proper is closed after 9 P. M., the Tea Room is available for after-theatre parties. This delightful feature is open from 3 P. M. to midnight.

While the HOTEL MARTHA WASHINGTON is exclusively a woman's hotel, men as visitors are admitted to the main corridor and reception rooms on the floor above.

Up-to-Date Conveniences

For the convenience of guests a ladies' tailoring establishment, millinery shop, manicure and chiropodist, hair-dressing parlor and other facilities have been installed, while all other outside needs may be conveniently supplied through the use of the telegraph and telephone systems.

Competent Chaperones will be provided for younger guests for theatre or dinner parties.

The spacious roof, 70 x 180 feet, affords a delightful promenade and commands a panoramic bird's eye view of the "Great City," with its numerous bridge and myriads of lights.

Those who have been fortunate enough to have once made its acquaintance invariably return from time to time to enjoy anew the never-failing charm of the HOTEL MARTHA WASHINGTON. It is here the needs and demands of women from all parts of the world are met promptly and courteously by experienced women employed exclusively; even the little girl page, a unique and rare custom. It is here that Freedom is found, yet Seclusion.
